

Here's another Proposition that mixes quantifiers. Work together to rigorously prove it. Ask me for help if you're unsure.

Prop. - There exists $n \in \mathbf{Z}$ such that, for all $x \in \mathbf{R}$, $nx - (x - 1) = x + 1$.